

INDRAS GHOSH

IGCC's Certified Trainer

Indras leads the sustainability department at the Indo-German Chamber of Commerce. In his role, he is also the in-house expert on business and human rights and serves as the lead in IGCC's trainer network on supply chain due diligence.

He has extensive experience working companies to look into their management processes geared supply chain due diligence, which include:

- Leading initiatives that engage the private sector and public sector in India and Germany to understand implementation challenges relating to corporate due diligence in India,
- Support companies in innovate measures to identify practical solutions in implementing corporate due diligence processes in India,
- Develop guidelines and support services for companies to seamlessly integrate regulations into their operations.

Connect on LinkedIn